

Notes of the Tower Hamlets Deanery Synod 12 September 2013

8pm at St Peter's, Bethnal Green

Attended by 10 clergy and 15 laity

Special guest – Bishop Adrian

Attendees gathered in the gardens of St Peter's and were welcomed by Bishop Adrian.

1. Licensing

The Bishop proceeded to carry out the licencing of Andrew Latimer to St Peter's Barge. Andrew was invited to say a few words about how he came to the ministry at Canary Wharf and the lunchtime services offered to those working there. All those present welcomed Andrew to the Deanery and took a moment to offer thought and prayer.

Andy thanked the Bishop and moved on to Deanery business.

2. Appointment of Governor

St Matthias School put forward a new governor to represent the Deanery - Naomi Adelayum. Naomi worships at St Matthew's Church and is married with two children. She has a Business Studies degree and, before she had the children, worked as a Project Manager in the Court Service.

Naomi's appointment was approved unanimously.

3.

Andy thanked Adam Atkinson for his generosity in hosting the meeting at St Peter's and providing food. The licencing and meeting concluded, all those present went on to enjoy the BBQ.

The next Synod – Thursday 14 November, 7.30pm at St Peter's Barge
